Gentle Yoga: An opportunity to create unity, oneness and connection allowing us to explore ways to become aligned balanced and centered. Focus on breathing, muscle tone, balance, relaxation and flexibility in this inspiring class. Good for everyone. (EAAP approved)

Flow Yoga: Flow through postures in unison with the breath. Time is taken to focus on body, mind and spirit. A full range of postures are explored and class starts slowly and gradually climbs to a peak then a gradual descent ending with relaxation.

Foundations to Flow Yoga In this class, we'll dive deep into what makes yoga much more than a way to stretch and exercise the muscles. In the beginning of each month, classes will be more like workshops where we explore in detail specific poses, the logic behind the typical cues offered in a flow class, how the breath integrates with flow and why yoga is a practice which trains the mind as much as the body. As the month progresses, we will build upon these foundations with a slow, mindful flow class that will help us integrate the ideas introduced at the beginning of the month. While each month may be treated like a 4-week series, each class will also stand-alone- participants can feel comfortable joining at any time.

Hatha Yoga We will explore the alignment and strength of our bodies in various yoga poses. Modifications and variations are given, and questions are encouraged. Class is appropriate for all – from beginner to the advanced.

Love your Feet Yoga Through traditional yoga poses, self-massage, and myofascial work with a tennis ball, you'll support your feet in this 75-minute class. Your foot has 26 bones, 32 joints, more than 100 muscles, tendons, & ligaments, and over 7000 nerve endings. Your feet are your structural platform for most movement and provide you stability in life. Your feet absorb and distribution your body weight, while at the same time adapting to changes in terrain underneath your feet. Come move, stretch, exercise, massage, and thank your feet for all they do. All are welcome, no prior yoga experience needed.
